

PUBLIC LEDGER

SEVENTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 1898.

ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can afford to give his goods free of cost. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

Here!

Is a Chance for Those Who Did Not Take Advantage of Our 1-3 Off Sale!

FELL OVERBOARD.

A Young Man Drowned at Buena Vista, O., by Falling From M. P. Wells.

William Hardy, a young man of Vanceburg, was drowned Tuesday night off the steamer M. P. Wells while the boat was at the landing at Buena Vista, O.

The crew was making several bogs heads of tobacco that had been loaded in order to make more room on the boat, and in some unaccountable manner, Hardy, who was sailing, missed his footing and fell into the river, sinking out of sight before aid could be gotten to him.

He was a son of Captain William Hardy, one of Vanceburg's well known citizens.

The body has not as yet been recovered.

FOUND DEAD.

Joseph H. Bode Found Dead in Newman's Livery Stable This Morning.

Joseph H. Bode, aged about 48, was found dead in the office of Mr. Bruce Newman's Livery Stable on Wall street about 6 o'clock this morning.

He had been employed about the stable for some time, and it was his custom to get up about 5 o'clock in the morning to feed a couple of wagon horses kept there.

This morning he did not make his appearance as usual, and when others went to wake him they found him dead.

He yesterday attended the George Wood sale with Mr. Newman and retired last evening in seemingly good health.

The cause for his death has not been ascertained. Corner Wood is holding an inquest as THE LEDGER goes to press.

Mr. Bode leaves four children, two sons—Messrs. John and Joseph—and two daughters—Misses Allie and Kate, his wife dying only a few weeks since.

LAST NIGHT'S MEET.

What Was Done By Members of the Washington Fire Company.

The Washington Fire Company met last night at Neptune Hall, President Russell in the Chair.

C. W. McClanahan, Trustee, reported that all the insurance money had been received—$9,400—and that $8,000 had been paid out in redeeming the Company's Opera house bonds, leaving only $800 outstanding, which will be paid on presentation.

The Committee to solicit funds for rebuilding the Opera house was directed to procure plans, select two or three of the most suitable ones and submit them to the Company, whereupon a Building Committee will be appointed to decide upon the best and proceed with the work.

Messrs. C. W. McClanahan, J. D. Dye, William H. Cox, Alex. Calhoun and Joseph Lowery were named to take charge of the work of clearing off the lot and caring for the brick, &c., for which they will be glad to have as many volunteers as wish to donate a day or two in work.

It was stated that Mr. John G. Wadsworth desired to donate all the rock necessary for the new foundation, while Captain Long Cook offers to hang the new bell free of cost.

Colonel Ben T. Smith, Janitor of Neptune Hall, donated his services during the night of the hall; and resolutions were passed thanking Mr. Smith and thanking the Neptune Fire Company for its handsome subscription to the new Opera-house, and for the use of its Hall.

Thanks were also tendered the several insurance companies for prompt payment of their losses.

We All Know

There is a popular belief that eyes cannot be properly fitted outside of an oculist's office, but we are constantly proving the incorrectness of that belief. If you have a dull pain about the eyeball, or if, when reading, the letters seem to run together, call and be relieved. We charge nothing for examination, and guarantee satisfaction in every case.

BALLENGER, Jeweler and Optician.

THAT PENSION AGENCY.

Senator Deboe Kicking, and Hon. Sam Roberts Goes to Washington.

Collector Sam J. Roberts and Colonel Leslie Combs of Lexington are in Washington.

The mission of Mr. Roberts is to urge the appointment of Mr. Combs as Pension Agent of Kentucky.

It is said that Senator Deboe is kicking, wanting Major Cardwell of Winchester, a Union veteran, appointed Pension Agent, and Combs appointed Postmaster at Lexington, the place promised H. Clay Elkin, who would thus be left out in the cold.

But Mr. Combs is not eligible to the Postmastership, Walnut Hill being his Postoffice.

Mr. Roberts, it is said, will use his influence to have the original plan carried out—Combs for Pension Agent and Elkin for Postmaster.
